

January 2024: Training Information

Dear Colleagues,

We're excited to invite you to training on WCU's new Student Information System – RamPortal!

RamPortal, the system replacing myWCU, will be used for fall 2024 class selection & advising beginning in March 2024. Please join us for training to learn how to support students through the registration process and discover the tools that will be available to assist with advising and degree completion.

Visit the RamPortal Training website to register for a session.

RamPortal Demo Days and Training Sessions

RamPortal, the system replacing myWCU, will be used for Fall 2024 selection and advising beginning in March 2024. Please join us for a live demonstration of the new system, and a more hands-on experience during Session 1 of the Faculty and Staff Training. Learn how to support to student through Fall 2024 registration!

What will I learn?

- Faculty and Student “Self-Service”
- Faculty Schedules and “Week at a Glance”
- WCU Degree Audits, which replaces the DPR/Degree Progress Report
- Student Registration process

Who should attend?

Faculty and Staff who help with student course selection and registration.

When will they occur?

Demo Days - Last week of January

Session 1 Faculty & Staff Training - opportunities to attend 3x a week for the month of February. All sessions will cover the same content.

Open Labs - virtually twice a week during March & April
